

Subject: Talented intern Website Designer and Developer for start up company.

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my keen interest in the Website Designer and Developer opportunity at your esteemed company. Please find attached my resume and cover letter, which detail my qualifications and experiences relevant to this role.

With a proven track record in crafting user websites using various JavaScript libraries and frameworks, coupled with hands-on experience as a React developer during my academic pursuits and internships, I am confident in my ability to contribute effectively to your team.

Thank you for considering my application. I eagerly anticipate the opportunity to discuss how my skills and background align with the needs of your organization.

Warm regards,

Genene Tise
